

Intro to trek Pelechuco, Apolo to Rurrenabaque

This year we have a new and exciting trek on offer. It starts in Pelechuco and goes all the way down to Rurrenabaque through the Madidi national park.

This has to be one of my favorite treks as the difficult level is not hard, but most of all it follows old Inca trails through virgin forest. You really get the feel of been out there, with spectacular views!

This trek is of the main tourist trail, and I could say there are only few groups a year going down this route.

It starts at a height of 4700m and goes down to 400m, crossing all the mountains jungle to the start of the flat Amazon.

The whole trek is quite long so we have made 3 options for people who don't have much time.

Option 1, the full trek, from Pelechuco to Rurrenabaque and onto La Paz

Option 2, from Pelechuco to Apolo, back to La Paz

Option 3, from Apolo to Rurrenabaque, back to La Paz
